Continued positive development shown by Indonesia's tourism industry, especially on the island of Bali make the government is optimistic that by 2013, Bali will be able to bring in more foreign tourists.

The 2012 target of the paradise island for the arrival of foreign guests has exceeded and that target of tourist arrivals to Bali according to the Minister of Tourism and Creative Economy, Mari Elka Pangestu will rise in line with the implementation of the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) 2013 in Bali.

During the year 2013 there will be a meeting in Bali as well as other supporting events held in Bali both governments related or related event. Another thing that is said by Mari Elka Pangestu is an international moment like this would be used as momentum to promote tourism in Bali and Indonesia as a whole. This is an excellent moment for the promotion she said.

The number of tourist arrivals increased will automatically affect the occupancy rates of accommodation facilities in Bali including Bali villas.

Bali villas which is an alternative means of accommodation that are safer than hotels and resorts as well as provide more privacy will be chosen by tourists who come to Bali.

Anyhow if you want to join several hotels and restaurants who offer special event on Christmas , then find some of the recommendation below. Though some point must be taken into consideration. If staying in Jimbaran then resorts around Jimbaran is a good choice but if you are not staying in Jimbaran then dont come to this area as it will be a heavy traffic along the way. This also implies during the New Year eve. It is better to find some event nearby or within walking distance from your villa or hotels.

Given APEC 2013 event will be held at the five-star hotel in Nusa Dua and the entire delegation will occupy several hotels and resorts in Bali, then the option for comfort during a holiday in Bali than APEC meeting attendees are Bali villas.

If you come to Bali in 2013 to coincide with the 2013 APEC event it is advisable to choose Bali villas as accommodation facilities as you will get more privacy than hotels and resorts awake the APEC delegates accommodation places.
