Traveling to tropical destination or anywhere in the world with children needs better and ahead of time planning. There are so many things to prepare and to consider from where to go, when you should go there with your kids, where to stay and also what to bring to keep your kids accommodate. Better planning will enable you and your kids have a fantastic vacation.

If you choose the island of Bali as your family vacation then the energy and planning for your travel will be somewhat lessened because of the Balinese affection for children. Balinese love children and they will take care of your kids while you are having a tour or just enjoying yourself by the beach.

For the Balinese children are believe are one of their ancestor coming down and because of the believe or Karma then if the parents taking care of their children then eventually the kids will taking care of them later. Children also considered coming straight from God and the younger there are the closer they are to God.

Getting the most from your vacation in Bali with children

Try staying on private villas which will be just like home away from home

Sometimes the Balinese get in despair with uncaring western parents which off course a normal things for western parents, they will take the kids to someplace where it can be cuddled, cosseted and fed. You will also found that your toddler may even get too much of attention.

When you are traveling to the island of Bali you will also notice that the children for the Balinese are a social asset and any western child they meet you will see a great interest from the Balinese.
